GELLMAN, KAUFMANN, METCALF-KUPRES, AND REESE JOIN WOMEN'S FUND BOARD

(Milwaukee, Wis.) – The Women's Fund of Greater Milwaukee, Inc. gained the services of four new board members in January 2010. The board members are:

- Jane Gellman is the immediate past president of the Milwaukee Jewish Community Center and serves on several other boards including the Hillel at both the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee and the University of Wisconsin-Madison.
- Juli Kaufmann is an entrepreneur and founder of Pragmatic Development, an organization that works on sustainable urban and rural development projects.
- Kim Metcalf-Kupres is vice-president of Global Sales & Marketing at Johnson Controls.
- Robin Reese is general manager at J.F. Cook Co overseeing all aspects of operations within the company.

Each board member will serve a three-year term.

In addition, the Women's Fund elected its 2010 officers. Amy Johnson, director of philanthropy at Cedar Community, will serve as Women's Fund board chair. Other officers include: Anne Tidmore, vice president at M&I Investment Management Corporation; Renee Messing, CPA, partner at Clifton Gunderson LLP; Michelle Nettles of MillerCoors; and Beth Weckmueller, executive director of Enrollment Services at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee.

About the Women's Fund of Greater Milwaukee

The Women's Fund of Greater Milwaukee, Inc. is dedicated to social change through women and girls. We have made investments in cutting-edge programs at more than 100 community-based agencies through the support of more than 3,200 donors and 200 volunteers. We are the first and largest permanent resource in Wisconsin dedicated exclusively to funding and advocacy for the emerging needs of women and girls. The Women's Fund was started in 1986 as a component fund of the Greater Milwaukee Foundation and became an independent public foundation in 2005. Since then, we have become a leader in the growing global movement of women's funds and we are a member of the Women's Funding Network, a network of more than 150 organizations that fund women's solutions across the globe.
